

Brief: web development

From a business need to a website that can be maintained and improved

Use plain language and upload the file through the Brief form on the KILENI website. Do not include passwords or secret keys.

Contact and context

Your name

How should we address you

Phone or email

One preferred contact is enough

Company or project

What does the business do?

Which products or services do you offer?

Who is the primary customer?

Brief: web development

Contact and context

Geography

What is not working today?

What outcome do you need?

Preferred timeline

Budget range

Known competitors

Brief: web development

Contact and context

Examples you like

Additional preferences and constraints

Service questions

Existing website URL, if any

Which website format is closest to the task?

What should a visitor do on the website?

Which sections are definitely needed?

Brief: web development

Service questions

What should the website be able to do?

Which services should the website connect to?

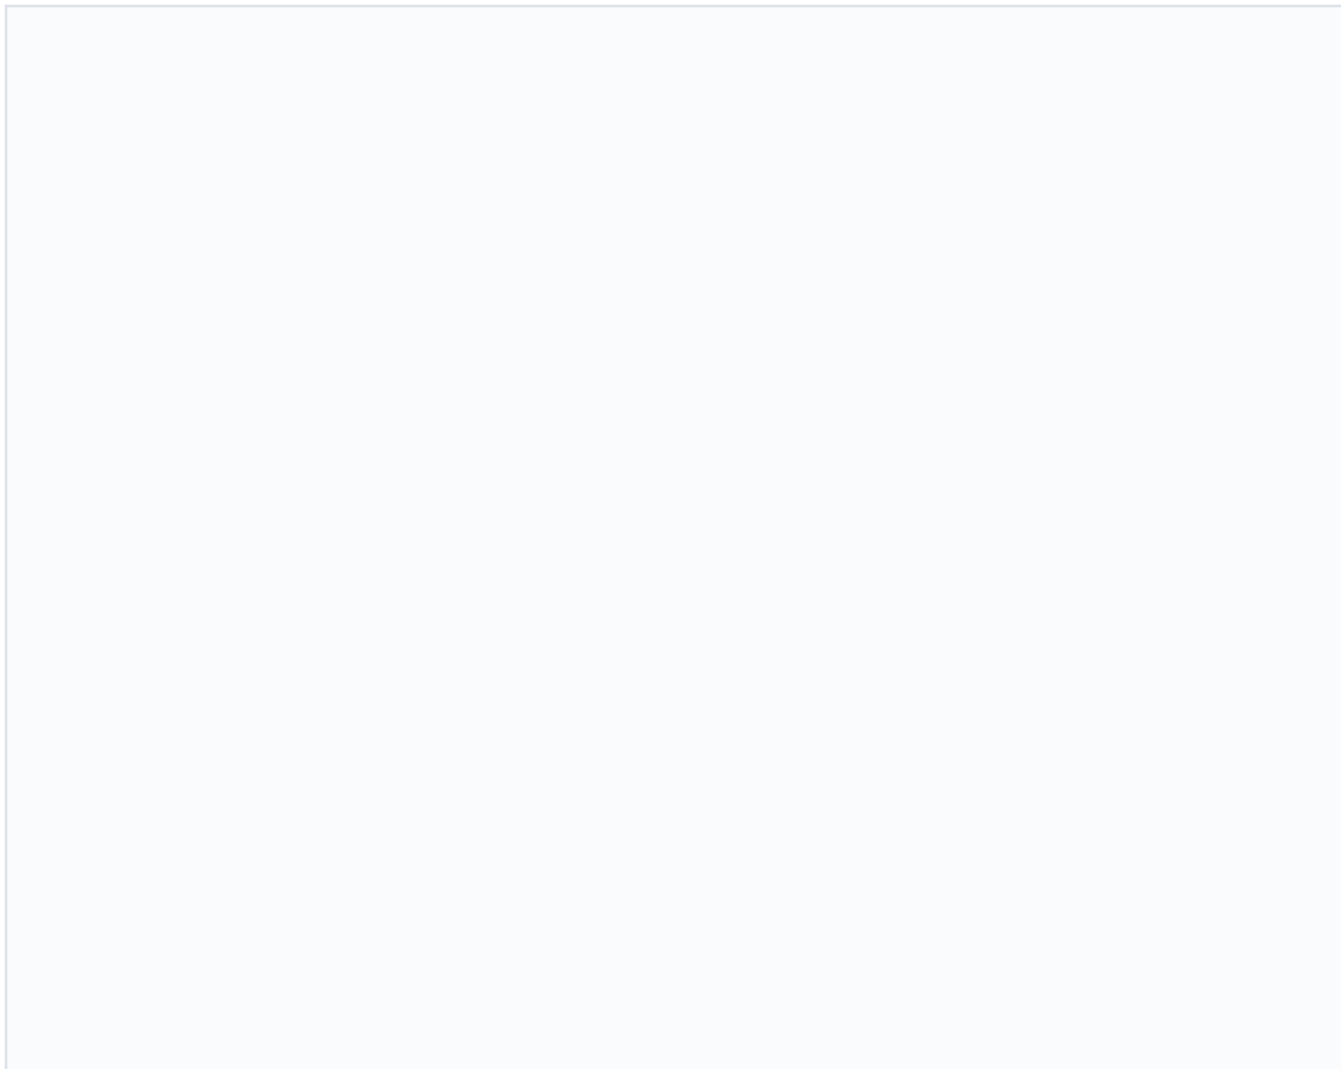

What is ready: logo, visual style, copy or photos?

Are there websites you like?

When should the website ideally launch?

Brief: web development

Additional materials and comments

☐ I agree to processing the provided data and receiving a response.